

Centerra Gold Mining Company's Impact on Human Rights enjoyment in Kyrgyzstan

- The general agreement between Centerra and Kyrgyzstan was signed on December 4, 1992 by the Government of the Kyrgyz Republic with the Cameco corporation in Toronto.
- Did not pass the tender;
- Partners shared the revenue, not the product;
- Legal, environmental, technical and economic expertise has not been passed;
- Tax exempted for 5 years
- The land tax was not paid.

ACCIDENTS AND ENVIRONMENTAL DISASTERS

- Helicopter crash, 15 workers killed
- In June 1996, construction workers died from injuries sustained;
- In August 1997, a toxic nitrogen compound was released
- On January 20, 2000, a car carrying chemical compound fell from the bridge between Barskoon village and the mine. As a result, 500 kg of ammonium nitrate fell into the water.
- On July 8, 2002, a dam in the quarry collapsed, killing one person;
- The most dangerous environmental catastrophe was the cyanide accident. On May 20, 1998, a truck carrying cyanide fell from a bridge and about 2 tons of cyanide spilled into Barskoon water;
- On October 21, 2007, a truck carrying lime fell in the middle of the village of Jenish Darkhan
